

PARTS OF SPEECH

NOUN

A word (other than a pronoun) used to identify any of a class of people, places, or things.

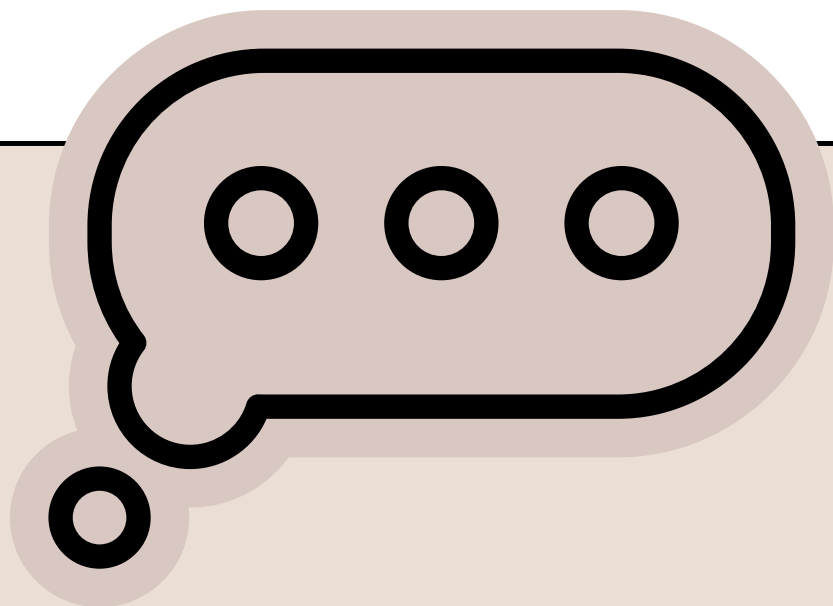

VERB

A word that indicates a physical action (e.g. drive), a mental action (e.g. think), or a state of being (e.g. exist).

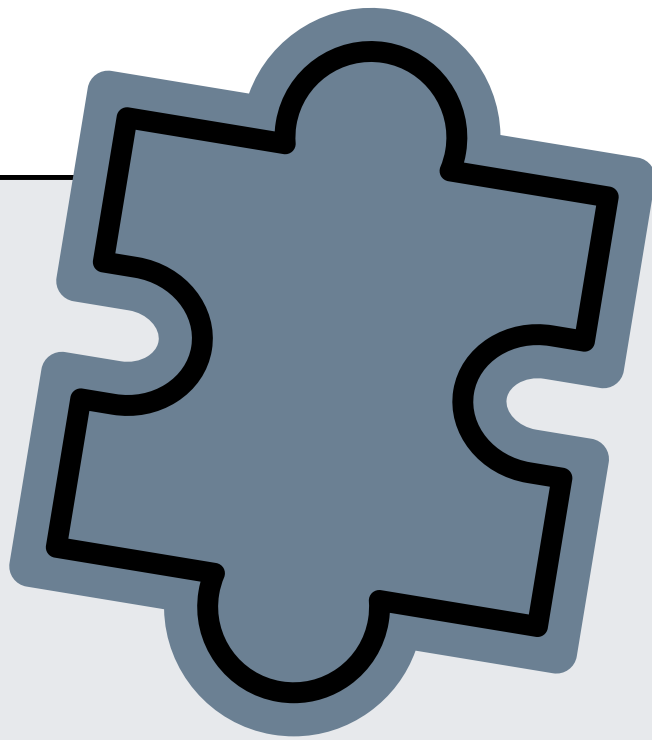

ADJECTIVE

Words that describe or modify a noun or pronoun, providing attributes like colour, size, or opinion.

ADVERB

A word that modifies or qualifies an adjective, verb, expressing a relation of place, time, circumstance etc.

PRONOUN

A word that stands in for a noun to avoid repetition. Pronouns can refer to people, things, concepts, and places.

