

Narrative Writing Prompts

Tell the story of a character who embarks on a journey. What challenges do they face, and how do they grow?

Write a story where your character wakes
up as someone
completely different.
How do they handle
the situation?

A mysterious device
sends your character
back in time. How do they navigate this,
and what impact do
they make?

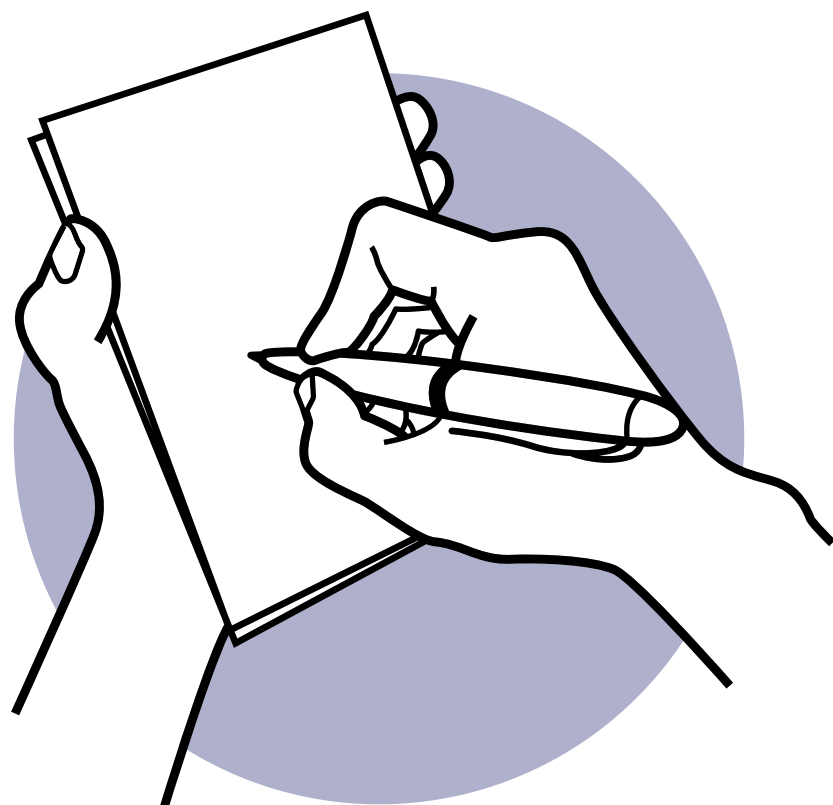

If your character could go back in time and change one historical event, what would they change? What impact would that have?

Your character's wish comes true, but not in the way they expected.
How do they handle
the consequences?

A character who is normally shy and reserved finds themselves in a situation where they have to save the day. How do they step up?

Imagine a world where all technology has suddenly disappeared.
How does society
function, and how does your character cope?

Write about a character who gets trapped in their favorite video game. How do they survive, and can they escape?

Your character finds an old object in an antique store that seems to have a life of its own. What happens to the character next?

A powerful storm hits, and your character is left alone.
How do they survive, and what discoveries do they make during and after the storm?

A new student arrives at your school, but there's something
mysterious about them.
Who are they, and why
are they here?

