

SPECIAL EDUCATION INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

To Ask Parents

- What are your child's areas of strength and difficulty?
- What academic objectives do you have for your child?
- What do you think your child should focus on the most?
- What methods have you found to be effective in the past for your child?
- How does your kid express his or her wants & preferences?
- What modifications does your child required to be successful in school?
- Your child learns best in what way?
- What worries you about your kids' education?
- What do you anticipate from the faculty & administration?
- How much involvement in your child's education do you wish to have?

SPECIAL EDUCATION INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

To Ask Parents

- How can the school help your family and you?
- What tools have you employed to supplement your child's education outside of the classroom?
- What impact does your child's health or ability have on their capacity to learn?
- How can the school meet the medical requirements of your child?
- Are there any specific trigger points or warning signs to look after?
- How does your kid react to punishment?
- What do you think about the application of supportive positive behavior?
- How do you envision technology playing a part in your child's education?
- What collaborations may the school have with your child's therapists or doctors?
- How does your child behave around other kids?

SPECIAL EDUCATION INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

To Ask Parents

- Which social skills do you believe your kid needs to practice the most?
- How can the school help your child develop socially?
- What activities and interests does your child have?
- How can your child's interests be included in their education by the school?
- What is the progress in the child's behavior after interventions?
- In what ways can the school assist your child get ready for the future?
- What objectives does your child have for the future?
- What kind of future do you see for your child?
- What worries do you have regarding your child becoming an adult?
- What specific steps can teachers take to support students with special needs in their transition to adulthood?

