

SPECIAL EDUCATION INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

To Ask Teachers

- What are the academic strengths and limitations of my child?
- How does my child engage in the classroom with their classmates and teachers?
- How have you modified or made arrangements for my child?
- How does my child react to various teaching philosophies?
- How do you monitor my child's academic progress?
- Are there any particular difficulties that my child is having in school?
- What is the strategy for getting my child ready for the following grade?
- How does the impairment of my child affect their capacity to learn?
- How are my child's hobbies included in their learning?
- Do you have any concerns about my kid's behavior?

SPECIAL EDUCATION INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

To Ask Teachers

- How do you interact with other medical personnel who treat my child?
- How can I help my child learn at home?
- What objectives have you established for my kid this year?
- Do you have any fresh approaches or interventions in mind for my kid?
- What kind of teaching modifications do you make for my child?
- What adjustments or changes have previously worked well for my child?
- What steps can I take to help my kid develop their own goals?
- Is there anything that my child needs extra help with?
- What standards do you have for my child's conduct in the classroom?
- How can you foster a sense of independence in my child in the classroom?

SPECIAL EDUCATION INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

To Ask Teachers

- What materials or methods have you discovered to be efficient for instructing my child?
- How do you meet the emotional needs of my child in the classroom?
- How can I be a part of my child's education?
- How do you resolve disputes involving my child and their classmates?
- What do you think my child's academic and social talents are?
- How do you make sure my child is interested and involved in the classroom?
- How do you envision me contributing to my child's education?
- To ensure that my child receives the right services, how do you collaborate with the IEP team?
- How does your educational philosophy fit with the needs of my child?
- How can we collaborate to make sure my child succeeds in school?