

EXPRESSIVE LANGUAGE CHECKLIST

- Ask multiple questions and also answer inquiries?
- Able to explain occurrences and offer their views in sentences?
- Use simple pronouns like 'he,' 'they,' and 'she.'
- Make use of proper plurals For instance: "Two automobiles"
- Make use of verb tenses. For instance: 'She walked'
- Understands and applies various parts of speech while speaking or writing.
- Asking for information in 'who' and 'why'
- Use possessive pronouns such as my, mine, your, yours, his, her, hers, our, ours, their, and theirs, etc.
- Interacting with others by Using direct requests with justification ("can you pass me the bottle?.")
- Can hold a rudimentary conversation and use language to ask others to play.
- Uses language to settle disagreements with peers.
- Participates in competitive exercise games (with help from adults)
- Understands the function and significance of print. They could be able to understand typing the text and how a printout of the same is taken out.
- Enroll and participate in oration sessions and competitions?
- Communicate their complaints clearly in-home and classroom?
- Quickly respond to the question asked?
- Start the conversation without fear?
- Use hands to explain the topic well?
- To write snippets of essays with good grammar?
- Wishing peers and others on their birthdays?